Program Title: Understanding YOUth – The Road to Better Communication

Date: April 4, 2004

Presenter: Rita Natale Saathoff

Q1. List one or two things you learned

Kids don't necessarily think bad things about adults.

How to listen. What is and isn't true about adolescents.

Great tips.

How to work together. Don't judge a book by its cover.

Working with others.

How to work together. It's not good to judge a person, if you don't know them then make friends.

How to trust others in a situation. Learning about your communication roadblocks.

How to work with others. Trusting someone else.

We are all the same on the inside, but look different outside. It just has to be looked at as you've been traveling the road longer.

Q2. List at least one way you plan to use this information.

Take and share with someone else.

Playing a high school sport.

Listen and take suggestions.

I will take and analyze advice more from someone older.

May use exercises at meetings.

When talking to adults and younger people.

As advisor with Peer Leadership.

Whenever I'm in a situation, listen and take suggestions.

Q15. Please list other comments or suggestions.

I think the outcome of this workshop was very good and easy to understand.

This is a very educational program that allows you to understand those older than you.

This was very fun. I enjoyed the raft scenario.
